THE TRAVEL DIARIES OF ALBERT EINSTEIN

The Far East, Palestine & Spain, 1922–1923
Edited by Ze’ev Rosenkranz

In the fall of 1922, Albert Einstein, along with his then-wife, Elsa, embarked on a five-and-a-half-month voyage to regions that the renowned physicist had never visited before. Quirky, succinct, and at times irreverent, the entries record Einstein's musings on science, philosophy, art, and politics, as well as his immediate impressions and broader thoughts on such events as his inaugural lecture at the future site of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, a garden party hosted by the Japanese Empress, an audience with the King of Spain, and meetings with other prominent colleagues and statesmen.

Einstein would go on to keep a journal for all succeeding trips abroad, THE TRAVEL DIARIES OF ALBERT EINSTEIN (publishing June 6, 2018) offers an initial, intimate glimpse into a brilliant mind encountering the great, wide world.
